

Privacy Notice

Headlines is committed to protecting the privacy of all personal data that you provide to us, and we will treat this information as carefully as if it were our own. This privacy notice (and any documents referenced in it) explains how we use personal data that you provide to us. By providing us with personal data, through our new member form or in other ways, or by using our website (www.headlines.org.uk), you are accepting and consenting to the practices described in this policy.

If at any time you'd like to change your information or how we communicate with you, please contact us at info@headlines.org.uk.

We will only process your data to provide you with the benefits of membership e.g., to communicate with you, to organise national and/or regional events, or for other legitimate interests of the charity. We will never sell any of your personal data to third parties. In the following circumstances, we share a limited amount of personal data with third parties related to Headlines' activities:

- sharing your name and address with a company that sends out our postal communications;
- sharing your name and email address with a company (MailChimp) whose mailing platform we use to send out our email communications;
- if you are attending a Headlines event (such as the Family Weekend), we may need to share some details with partner organisations or individuals that are providing a service.

For further information please access our full Data Protection and Privacy Policy.

Cookies

This website uses Google Analytics. Google Analytics uses cookies to collect information about how visitors use our site. We use the information to compile reports and to help us improve the site. The cookies collect information in an anonymous form, including the number of visitors to the site, where visitors have come to the site from and the pages they visited.

To opt out of being tracked by Google Analytics across all websites visit <http://tools.google.com/dlpage/gaoptout>.

We do not make any attempt to find out the identities of those visiting this website. We will not associate any data gathered from this site with any personally identifying information from any source. If we do want to collect personally identifiable information through our website, we will be up front about this. We will make it clear when we collect personal information and will explain what we intend to do with it.
